UNIQUE PRODUCTIONS

Silver Wrought Into Fascinating and Fantastic Articles, Novel in Finish and in Design

Some of the most unique productions obtainable anywhere are the silver novelties now on exhibition (and on sale at very low prices) at the Grand Hotel, 100 Madison St. of Mermod & Jacard, Broadway, cor. Locust. These novelties embrace articles not only ornamental but of the greatest use, such as silver-plated and silver-plate toilet tables and for gentlemen's toilet.

Solid silver novelties are among the best leading, and because of their unique finish and design, they are also the most valuable, and the most pleasing to the eye; and they are also the most useful, and the most appreciated by the public.

The articles are not intended for the gift, but might be mentioned an almost invaluable array, each novelty in itself a masterpiece of artistic power. The silver-plated and silver-plate articles of Mermod & Jacard's, corner Locust, has attracted the attention of the public, and is being sold both during the opening and before the closing of the season.

It should be seen by all those who desire unique Christmas presents at low prices.

Prof. Theodore Adelman, Principal of the Douglas School, complained to the police to-day of the actions of a crowd of youthful hoodlums on the island, who, he claimed, had annoyed and in some instances assaulted his pupils.

Algers and the Carnegies make themselves just now the better it will be for their highly unjust cause.

Emperor William wants to buy the Vigilant he should have it. Let him take it to England and let his imperial majesty on it. We can supply all the crowned heads with yachts enough to keep them out of mischief, and we can build improved Vigilants for ourselves. Possibly the European tax-payer would thrive more if he had to pay for yachts instead of standing armies.

WHEN Mr. McKinley is President the Twenty-sixth Ward Republican Club will doubtless be remembered, as he has just acknowledged the club's resolution in honoring him for '06. Every man in the organization deserves an office for this timely reason, and no doubt many members contributed to the collection taken up for Mr. McKinley some time since to relieve him of his financial embarrassments, brought on by grave tariff reform apprehensions among the Buckeyes.

THE extraordinary demand for the Post-Dispatch World's Fair Art Portfolio has been in excess of the capacity of the presses employed in their production. To this cause is due the delay in filling mail orders and that several hundred of our subscribers have had cause to complain. The publisher has at our pressing solicitation, put on additional forces so that the production may be increased to keep up with the unprecedented demand the art work has met with. To still further insure that there shall be no cause for complaint, the Post-Dispatch has taken personal charge of the mail department of the portfolio, and in future all orders will be promptly filled. In the meantime those who have had to wait a few days are asked to be patient a day or two more, and by that time we will be up to date in the filling of orders by mail.

mand, and of these, obstruction is the most effective. The extra session taught them what might be done by a resolute and over-scrupulous minority. That these tactics will be repeated is a probability almost equal to a certainty.

Public sentiment is almost unanimous in demanding prompt action. Only speculators can gain by delay. The rules should be amended at once. This done the most fruitful source of uneasiness will be removed. Every legitimate interest in the country is waiting upon this assurance from the Senate.

THE DULLNESS ACCOUNTED FOR.

There is internal evidence in the President's message that he is reserving himself for special occasions when he may startle the country with emphatic and terse outcries like that of 1887 when he assumed the Moses-ship of the tariff reformers and announced his purpose to lead them out of the land of Egypt.

In this he only follows some other Presidents whose regular annual messages have been cautiously worded documents full of generalities more or less glittering and saws more or less in need of the file. The great issue-making messages have been written on emergencies. They have usually been devoted to one subject only and have been designed to electrify party friends and carry confusion and consternation into the camp of the enemy. Reputations have been lost and won by special messages. Statesmen have earned undying fame by sudden flashes of genius. Traditions have been founded by votes and ideas have been thrown out on the spur of the moment which lie at the base of American policy. Many other Presidents have put millions to sleep by their annuals only to wake them up by a single "spurt" of natural genius.

Lawyer-like, President Cleveland follows the precedent. He has confined himself to routine in his annual message in order to mass his ability on a single point in the future.

Only by some such hypothesis as this can the inordinate dullness of his latest official utterance be accounted for.

NOTES NEEDED.

An Important Question in Connection With the Tariff.

Will the Populists Support the New Measure in the Senate?

WANTED A FEW DEMOCRATIC SENATORS MAY BOLT THE BILL.

Should This Defection Occur the Votes of the Third Party in the Upper House Will Assume Great Importance—Friends of Kyle, Allen and Peffer, However, Say They Will Fall in Line—Possible Populist Policy.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6.—There is some discussion among the members of Congress about the probable action of the Populists on the tariff bill. In the House it is likely they will vote for the bill, and would if possible, vote for a more sweeping measure.

In the Senate the votes of the Populists become a matter of considerable importance in view of the fact that there has been some talk of a few Democrats not supporting the measure unless some material modifications are made in the bill.

Friends of both Kyle and Allen say they would vote for even a greater cut than that made in the Wilson bill, and that Peffer will also join them. The action of the Populists may be an important feature in passing the bill.

Some of the Democrats of the House have been informed that there has been outlined a policy for the Populists, which includes the rejection of the tariff bill in order that the next campaign may be made up on the money question, and if it were possible for the Populists to defeat the bill they would do so.

This apprehension does not seem to be well founded, however, as the Populists have declared their intention of supporting a radical tariff bill and the highest possible income tax.

Appropriation Bills.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6.—The appropriation bills which were prepared by sub-committees during the recess have not been submitted to the full committee to be reported to the House, and there is not that disposition to push these bills that existed about the time of adjournment. Chairman Sawyer was asked what occasioned the change in the programme and he said that the Appropriations Committee was waiting for the Ways and Means Committee to make the tariff bill.

He indicated that the appropriations might be governed by the deficiencies the tariff would make.

Mr. Holman of the Appropriations Committee declared that there was no necessity for making any provisions for raising revenue even with the cuts which the new tariff bill would make; that the deficiency could be made up by cutting down appropriations.

Mr. Sawyer was asked if this were possible, he could only say that the appropriations, so far as he was concerned, would be made with the same liberality as in the past. The deficiency would have a tendency to cut down the bill.

McGinnis's Aspirations.
New York, Dec. 6.—Friends of Dr. Edward McGinnis, the former rector of St. Stephen's, whose troubles with his Archbishop and his advocacy of the single tax have given him national reputation, are urging his appointment as Minister to Italy, vice James J. Van Allen resigned. Henry George has signed the petition to the President.

Boatman's Ambition.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6.—Representative Boatman of Louisiana has been mentioned as the successor of the late Judge Billings of that State. Mr. Boatman has been a member of the Committee on Judiciary. He says he would be willing to exchange his Congressional seat for one on the bench.

How the Tariff Was Made.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6.—One of the majority members of the Ways and Means Committee explains how the new tariff bill was made up. He says that at first there was the large addition to the free list. Nearly every man on the majority cut had cut in the free list. "It was not a question of sacrifice," he said. "We did not make any sacrifices; the different schedules were voted on by us. After the bill had been made up, as far as possible, I voted for a cut when my vote was needed to make a cut. The members of the committee were not able to do with a bill which would fill their own interests."

SEEDS FOR FARMERS.
The Agricultural Statesmen Agitated Over Cleveland's Attitude.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The farmer statesmen of Congress are considerably agitated over the features of the President's message and the Postmaster-General's report which discourage rural free delivery and advise the discontinuance of Government distribution of seeds. It is the impression that the attitude of the Administration will put a rude termination to the experiments in agricultural free delivery, and the Democratic leadership in Congress are to-day as to the attitude of the Administration on these two subjects of such wide interest to farmers.

Chairman Henderson (Dem.) of North Carolina, of the House Committee on Post-Office and Post-roads, is to do with the discussion of the rural free delivery plan. "But," said Mr. Henderson, "this plan of rural delivery, like the 1-cent postage, has been made to be a trifle in advance of the time. For that reason the recommendation of the Postmaster-General is no new surprise. The plan has never shown itself to be feasible. It would cost an enormous sum. The cost of giving free delivery to cities of over 10,000 population is something over $10,000,000 annually. If the service is extended to towns having a population of 5,000, the expense will be enormous. And to carry that expense to the extent of covering every country district with postal messengers would be wholly impracticable. I do not think the committee will recommend any further appropriation for experimenting with the plan, for the Postmaster-General does not believe in the plan, and we would hardly feel like forcing appropriation on him."

Representative Caldwell (Rep.) of Ohio closed the other side of the question. "The recommendation of abandoning free delivery is a step backward," said he. "The experiments made in rural free delivery have been a marked success in three-fourths of the offices where tried and that postal revenues have been increased. In the one rural free delivery station established in my district the service has been of great advantage and the people will be reluctant to surrender it. I am in hope that our committee will give a further appropriation for extending the service, and thereby a number of us in the committee who will seek, to prevent the abandonment of the plan."

For Nervous Prostration.
Use Horford's Acid Phosphate.

Dr. W. GREAVES, Northfield, Minn., says: "I have used it in cases of nervous prostration, and also in combination with other remedies in indigestion; it has proved as satisfactory as could be expected."

GRAND LEADER

WANTS TO MARRY AGAIN.

Wm. Lubbert's Short and Unhappy Matrimonial Experience Not Enough for Him.
William Lubbert of 1219 Geyer avenue called at the Prosecuting Attorney's office to-day to ask advice. He had been married and his wife got a divorce from him. He wants to get married again, but there is an obstacle in the way. He was ordered by the Court to pay his wife $10 a month alimony. He admitted he had not been paying the alimony, and was apprehensive that he might get into trouble if he got married again. Prosecuting Attorney Dierkes asked him what was the trouble between him and his first wife. He said he left her a few weeks after they were married and she got a divorce for desertion. He showed a copy of his wife's petition for divorce. It stated that they were married Dec. 15, 1891, and lived together until Feb. 1, 1892. He said his first wife was only 18 years old when he married her. He now wants to marry a widow 30 years old. He is 35 years old. He refused to give the name of the widow he intends marrying as he said he was not sure yet whether he could get her or not. Dierkes told him that there was nothing to prevent him from marrying again, as the alimony debt was a civil matter which could only be collected if he was worth it.

"We've Got Too Many Boys' Finest Suits."

That's what the head of the Boys' Dept. said to the General Manager this morning. "Is that so?" said the General Manager. "We'll fix that right now. Cut the price on every Suit you have in stock from $8 to $13.50 down to $5.95, and we'll see if St. Louis knows a good thing when it's offered. And while you're about it, throw in all our Boys' Cape Overcoats at the same price."

So for the rest of this week you can

Take Choice of All Boys' $13.50, $12, $10, $8 and $8 Two Piece Suits for $5.95

All $12, $10, $8 and $8 Boys' Cape Overcoats go at $5.95!

300 Men's $10 Overcoats also go at $5.95!

Mrs. Foy Adds Another Chapter to Her Revelations.

THREE OTHER MEN, SHE SAYS, WERE MARKED FOR DEATH.

Put the Conspirators Feared to Carry Their Plans Into Execution—The Alleged Facts in Her Possession Told to Attorneys Last Summer—The Jury to Try Coughlin.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 6.—Mrs. Foy, the wife of Bricklayer Andrew Foy, whose revelations last Saturday caused such a decided sensation in the Coughlin case, she claiming to be in possession of all the details of the Oronin assassination, has, it is said, added another important chapter to the true history of the crime. In this chapter, it is said, Mrs. Foy gives the names of three more men who she claims were to have been killed by the alleged conspirators. The three named men, according to Mrs. Foy, were ex-Judge Richard Prendergast, John F. Finerty and a Mr. Conway, a real estate man. She also gave the names of three other men, who, she says, were implicated in the conspiracy and had as much to do with it as Coughlin.

According to the statement which is credited to Mrs. Foy all these points were given to Judge Wing and Attorney Forest last summer, but Mrs. Foy says that they persuaded her not to give them to the public and used the statement that her husband would be hanged if she did.

"Last summer I grew so miserable," Mrs. Foy's statement goes on, "that I could not stand it any longer, so I went down to Attorney Forest's office and told him the whole story—everything. Judge Wing was there when I finished they both begged me not to say a word."

Mrs. Foy is reported as saying: "After Coughlin was disposed of they began making plans to do away with the other three. But I told them positively that if they attempted to kill anybody else I should certainly tell the story. Consequently they made no further efforts to dispose of the three."

Here Mrs. Foy paused suddenly. "All I want is a chance to tell what I know in court and then my mind will be at rest," she concluded.

Mrs. Foy's "confessions" have excited much comment and wide difference of opinion. Yesterday Judge Wing of counsel for the defense referred to her as "a delicious and almost crazy woman," to which the prosecuting attorney earnestly took exception.

Following is the jury, completed yesterday, that will try the case: Frederick G. W. Harrison, harness-maker. Michael Conlon, conductor. John F. Larson, bookkeeper. Frank H. Lutz, clearmaker. Alfred E. Woodward, railway clerk. Clark Bruce, inventor. O. S. Weinberger, conductor. Hiram Wadsworth, river boatman. Oscar Benson, brakeman. Oscar F. Brown, carpenter. C. Holman, real estate dealer. George F. Sharp.

RECORDING DEEDS.

The Two Terminal Companies Buy Property Jointly—Real Estate News.

The St. Louis Terminal Railroad Co. have commenced to record their deeds to real estate for a connection between the Merchants' Terminal route in North St. Louis and the Wabash Railroad. This purchase of real estate for a right of way for the Merchants' Terminal by the St. Louis Terminal or Union Depot Co. indicates that the understanding between the two terminals is so good that their property is common. Late last evening two deeds conveying property on the south side of Birch road, near King's highway, to the railroad, were filed for record. The deeds, one for a consideration of $500, also a deed conveying from A. H. Brown, owner to the railroad ninety-seven one-hundredth acres of land on the south side of Birch road, near King's highway, in city block 4, for a nominal consideration of $5. The deed from the railroad to the St. Louis Terminal Co. report the sale of house No. 108 North Channing avenue, an eleven-room stone-front dwelling, with 22 rooms, for $4,200, cash from A. Rice to Anne Hilbert.

L. S. Brotherton reports the sale of 98 feet 10 inches of ground at the southern corner of Olive street and Taylor avenue for $1,125, from Capt. John P. Kaiser to Judge James E. Wilkrow.

L. V. Cartan & Co. report the sale of twenty acres of land in the county on the Big Bend road, 600 feet west of the Denny road, for $1,750, from A. H. Mason of Philadelphia to D. S. Brown.

MISS HOPKINS' MARRIAGE.

The Former Lady Instructor of the Pastimes Becomes Mrs. W. O. McLean.

When Miss Florence N. Hopkins, the talented and handsome young Boston lady who last year officiated as instructress of physical culture in the lady members of the Pastime Club, notified the club directors about six weeks ago that she was coming here to stay, those gentlemen characterized her move as "foolish." They had notified her that her services were not desired and if she came all the way out here just to see them on her contract, they argued, she was taking an expensive risk. But Miss Hopkins arrived and demanded her situation back. That being refused she filed suit against the club damages. Recent developments indicate that Miss Hopkins' situation and her suit for damages were only secondary considerations with her in forsaking her home in cultured Boston. The principal reason was a little more romantic. Yesterday Miss Hopkins changed her name and is now Mrs. W. O. McLean. The ceremony was performed last evening at the home of the groom's father in Washington, Mo. Mr. McLean is Treasurer of the Berry-Horn Coal Co. of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. McLean will be at home to their friends at No. 2901 Washington avenue, after Dec. 10.

Subscribers who have failed to receive portfolios ordered by mail are requested to be patient a day or two longer and the art works will be forthcoming. Commencing to-day we take personal charge of waiting the portfolios instead of having them mailed from printing office as heretofore, and all unfiled orders will be rushed out by our forces, who will work till midnight to-night to accomplish this result.

CABLE-CAR CRASH.

Six Persons Injured in a Collision at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 6.—In a cable-car collision on Milwaukee avenue late last night six persons were seriously injured. Their names are:

Mrs. AMANDA BIDWELL.
Miss WINKIE THOMPSON.
JOHN GREEN.
JULIUS NELSON.
A. T. BRONCHER.
H. WILSON.

A north-bound trailer with fifty people aboard jumped the track at a sharp curve and stopped directly in the path of a south-bound grip. The latter was going at a high rate of speed and crashed into the derailed car with great force.

Both grip and trailer were shattered and the passengers thrown in all directions. It is thought that all the injured will recover.

Steamer Beached.

MANISTEE, Mich., Dec. 6.—The steamer Waldo on Milwaukee avenue late last night six persons were seriously injured. Their names are:

Mrs. AMANDA BIDWELL.
Miss WINKIE THOMPSON.
JOHN GREEN.
JULIUS NELSON.
A. T. BRONCHER.
H. WILSON.

A north-bound trailer with fifty people aboard jumped the track at a sharp curve and stopped directly in the path of a south-bound grip. The latter was going at a high rate of speed and crashed into the derailed car with great force.

Both grip and trailer were shattered and the passengers thrown in all directions. It is thought that all the injured will recover.

Turned White Asleep.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 6.—Mrs. Lucy Wright's house at Bessemer burned this morning. Her charred remains were found in the embers. A defective fuse caused the house to burn. Mrs. Wright was asleep when the fire broke out and could not be rescued.

Going to Pieces.

NEWPORT, R. I., Dec. 6.—A large schooner whose name cannot be learned went ashore and was wrecked on the windward side of Block Island at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The wind was blowing 53 miles an hour at the time and very heavy seas were running. A life-boat put out from the station but was quickly swamped. For two hours the life-savers tried to get ropes to the wrecked vessel, but failed. A breeches-buoy was thrown and the captain and five sailors brought ashore in safety. The vessel is in a bad position and is going to pieces.

To Escape the Storm.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Dec. 6.—This harbor is filled with vessels, all having run in here during the past twelve hours to escape the storm that has been raging. The big tug Robert Lockhart, Robert Rathbun, The T. J. Scully, Joseph Lovett, Charles Sanford and America are all in with bows awaiting good weather to proceed.

On the Rocks.

SALISBURY, Mass., Dec. 6.—The snow-storm has added to the excitement of the wreck of the schooner Jefferson near Baker's Island. The Jefferson was bound from St. John, New Brunswick, for Philadelphia. She was wrecked off Cape Cod at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The crew has been rescued, but it is thought Jefferson will knock herself to pieces on the rocks.

NORTH AND SOUTH ROAD.

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 6.—About twenty delegates were present at this morning's session of the railroad convention. The plans for building and operating the North & South road as reported by the committee last night were discussed.

As Texas was without representation, a citizen of Topeka, named Kempton, who formerly lived at Fort Worth, was sworn in to represent the Lone Star State and the question of terminals on the Gulf.

The report of the committee was adopted after several amendments had been adopted. The Provisional Board of Directors was re-elected and the convention adjourned to reconvene in Topeka, Jan. 4, 1904.

Saturday and Sunday Hospital By Laws.

The Hospital Saturday and Sunday Association of St. Louis held a meeting at the Mayor's office to-day and adopted a constitution and set of by-laws. There were about twenty gentlemen present, many of whom were ministers.

The constitution states the object of the association to be to collect gifts for hospital purposes. The officers are a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and Treasurer, with the usual committees. The distributing committee is composed of the Mayor, Postmaster and President of the Merchants' Exchange.

The constitution and by-laws are virtually the same as those of the New York and other similar organizations abroad.

Report of Advertiser's Committee on Callers at the Post-Dispatch Office.

To prove beyond the shadow of a doubt that the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH was the best advertising medium in St. Louis the management of the paper determined to put its power to a test by counting the exact number of callers that visited this office in response to a suggestion contained in a small announcement in last Sunday's issue. The SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH management, to prove to the public that the Post-Dispatch office would be visited on Monday by the largest gathering that ever flocked into a St. Louis newspaper office on a single day, placed a turnstile inside of the front door and invited the Wm. Barr Dry Goods Co. and the firm of F. W. Humphrey & Co. to send their representatives to manage the counting. The invitation was accepted, and Messrs. Owen E. Considine and L. Dreyer were detailed by these two big firms to personally supervise the count. These gentlemen stood on guard all day Monday and Tuesday and examined the turnstile together and found that 9,388 persons had called at the Post-Dispatch counters Monday and 5,018 Tuesday, or a grand total of almost 9,500 people for the two days.

This mighty throng is without doubt the largest number of persons that ever assembled in a St. Louis newspaper office on two successive days. They were days, too, that were cold, wet, muddy—in fact, an unusually disagreeable pair of days. If they had been bright and pleasant days, the total would certainly have been swelled to 11,000 or 12,000. The following is the report of the two firms on the result of their investigations:

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: GENTLEMEN—At your request, we sent trained employees to your office at 8 o'clock Monday morning, who immediately took charge of the turnstile placed at your door, and they certify to us as follows:

That 6,388 persons passed the turnstile, of which they held the key, between the hours of 8 o'clock a. m. and 7 o'clock p. m., Monday.

They further certify that 5,000 ART PORTFOLIOS were distributed by clerks at the counter. Also that 721 letters ordering Portfolios were received.

The total number of persons passing through turnstile for the two days was 9,406.

They further certify that 5,000 ART PORTFOLIOS were distributed by clerks at the counter. Also that 721 letters ordering Portfolios were received.

We congratulate the POST-DISPATCH upon its enterprise, and its ability to handle such a gigantic scheme so successfully. Very respectfully yours, Wm. BARR DRY GOODS CO. (J. FRANKLIN, Vice-President)

F. W. HUMPHREY & CO. Although the turnstile is not there to-day the crowds are still coming for the portfolios and will continue to come all week.

The above report only enumerates the callers for two days out of seven. The mail orders that were received to the number of 721 on Monday and Tuesday are coming in heavier to-day, as they are mainly from a distance.

MADE A BIG HAUL.

Big haul secured $5,000 worth of jewelry at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 6.—Safe blowers entered Butler & Miller's jewelry store between 11 o'clock last night and 5 o'clock this morning by prying open a rear window. They secured about $5,000 worth of watches and jewelry and $100 in cash. There is no clue.

INDICTMENTS QUASHED.

Officers of the Illinois Banking and Savings Association Released.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Dec. 6.—Just before the Circuit Court closed this forenoon the presiding judge announced his decision to quash the indictments found against the officers of the Central Illinois Banking and Savings Association of this place. The men up before the court were L. W. Brown, President; W. E. Veitch, cashier; A. C. Wadsworth, S. R. Capps and V. S. Richardson, directors. All were in court and ready to answer if called on. The bank, which was in reality a private partnership without a charter, will have the private fortunes of all the stockholders to use, and so it is believed that nearly all will be paid to the depositors, though they may have to wait a while.

N. J. SCHLOSS & CO.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The firm of N. J. Schloss & Co., manufacturers of boys' clothing, made an assignment yesterday afternoon, giving as a reason that Joseph Herz Louis, a trusted employee who has been with the firm for eighteen years, had inveigled the firm by a series of defalcations. The exact amount of his thefts is not known, but may be estimated anywhere from $50,000 to $100,000.

As soon as Louis learned that the shortage had been discovered he attempted to commit suicide by inhaling gas in a room at the Union Square Hotel, but was discovered and arrested before he could effect his purpose.

TWO FURNITURE DEALERS.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Dec. 6.—The Clark-Dickinson Furniture and Carpet Co. yesterday made an assignment to Jerome S. Beach.

Albert E. Horton, a furniture dealer, yesterday assigned to James T. Morris, Creditors' Trustee, the assets of the Clark-Dickinson Furniture and Carpet Co. and made application for the appointment of a receiver, and it is thought the assignment will not stand.

RECEIVER W. M. ROBERTSON.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 6.—Wm. M. Robertson was late last evening appointed Receiver of the Chicago Trust and Savings Bank by Judge Horton. The appointment was made at a hearing presided over by the bank against Daniel H. Tolman, its President.

BUSINESS TROUBLES.

PHILIP H. Kaughnold, a tailor of Decatur, Ill., assigned yesterday. Liabilities, $1,400; assets, $1,700.

Bond & Treadwell, a large dry goods house of Jackson, Tenn., assigned yesterday. Assets about $30,000; liabilities, $25,000.

The kite-shaped track at St. Louis, Mo., with all appurtenances thereto, was yesterday sold by the sheriff under a mechanic's lien for $25,000.

Cave J. Crockett, a dry goods merchant of Union City, Tenn., yesterday made a deed of assignment to his creditors. Assets, $25,000; liabilities, $25,000.

The old established banking house of Du Fresnois of Florence, Italy, suspended payment yesterday. Engle, the manager of the bank has committed suicide.

A receiver was yesterday appointed at Chicago for the McCormick Construction Co., which has an $800,000 excavation contract on the drainage canal. McCormick is the man who a few weeks ago told a bogus story of being robbed of $70,000.

Old Friends Taken Back.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 6.—The officials of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Co. at this place have received word that the strike has been settled. Freight Agent Rundle yesterday received a number of old men back into the service and to-day a number of old employees among the engineers and firemen asked to be taken back.

The freight cars are moving over the tracks at the Communipaw yards. The employees who have been out for nearly a month are glad that the strike is ended, as most of them have used up most of their savings, and had they not been taken back, they would have had a hard winter, as the chances for them to obtain work were slight.

HUGH McMANUS ARRESTED.

The Well-Known Englist Accused of Burglary and Larceny.

Hugh McManus, the well-known prizefighter, was arrested this morning by Deputy Sheriff Sheehy on a warrant charging him with burglary in the second degree and larceny. Henry Kretschmer, who conducts a saloon at 14 North Eleventh street, opposite the City Hall, is the prosecuting witness. He alleges that on last Sunday night McManus forced an entrance to the saloon and carried off a quantity of liquor and cigars. Mrs. Mollie Emory, who resides on the floor above the saloon, claims she heard and saw McManus enter the place and called the attention of Officer Hanrahan, but when the officer searched the place no one could be found. It is said that McManus was under the influence of liquor when the alleged crime was committed. He was called out this morning by Joseph Landberg.

ATL READY FOR SEA

The United States Ship Ranger in San Francisco Harbor.

REPORTED SHE IS TO GO ONCE TO HONOLULU.

Another Statement Says She Is Bound for Central American Waters - Her Officers Refuse to Say What the Destination of the Warship Is - The Feeling in Washington Against Willis' Reported Action - Capt. Cutler.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 6.—United States ship Ranger came down from Mare Island last night all ready for sea. It was reported here she was going to Honolulu, though a correspondent at the navy yard stated she was bound for Central America. The officers of the Ranger refused to say what was the ship's destination.

ADMINISTRATION DISAPPOINTED. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 6.—The State Department was evidently informed early yesterday of the news received from Honolulu by way of Port Townsend, so far as it conveyed the intention of Minister Willis to take no further steps toward carrying out his instructions until he should hear further from the department, but so far as it conveyed the public utterance in Honolulu by the Minister of his intentions, it was news to the department, to the President and to his cabinet. There were indications to the impression was conveyed that the administration is rather disappointed at the manner in which Minister Willis has thus far conducted his mission.

It is evident that the State Department received by last steamer (the Albatross) the news that Minister Willis had determined to defer the carrying out of his instructions until he had heard further from his Government. It is a fair presumption that the revenue cutter Corwin carries to him the further instructions for which he asks. The paragraph in the President's message referring to Hawaii was written after the additional instructions to Minister Willis had been dispatched. This paragraph may be taken to reflect the spirit of the instructions. By referring to this, it will be clearly seen that whatever doubt or apprehension Minister Willis may have expressed of the accuracy or good foundation of the Blount report, President Cleveland has not lost any of his absolute faith in the accuracy of the Blount investigation and the justice of his conclusions. It is highly probable, therefore, that the new instructions are a repetition of the old.

A press representative received from a reliable source an intimation of the policy intended to be followed in Hawaii. The extent of the active influence intended to be employed in behalf of re-appointing Liliuokalani on the throne has probably been exaggerated. The purpose of the administration is believed to be rather to act as an arbitrator between two parties in dispute, and endeavor to prevail on them to agree between themselves. This was contingent upon its confident belief, based on the explicit assertion contained in the last letter to Mr. Blount, that the provisional government would fail to places when notified that annexation was impracticable, leaving an open dispute between the ex-Queen and the provisional government leaders. In that letter, which has not been published, under date of Honolulu, July 21, said:

"The action of the United States is awaited by all as a matter of necessity. This condition, it can be assumed, will remain until the proposition to annex is accepted or rejected. In the latter contingency no action of the United States is likely to occur. The present government can only rest on the use of military force, possessed of most of the arms on the islands, with a small white population to draw from to sustain its authority. It will fall without fail. It may preserve its existence for a year or two, but no longer."

Enough is known of Minister Willis' impressions, gained since his arrival in Honolulu, to make it certain that he does not agree with Mr. Blount in this. Whether this impression caused his determination to await further instructions from Washington is a matter of conjecture. The telegram bringing late news from Hawaii was read with interest and was the subject of consultation in the cabinet, but probably caused no change in the plan already adopted after hearing from Minister Willis by the Albatross.

The Hawaiian Minister, Mr. Thurston, was not at home, but the little group of Hawaiians at his hotel were glad to hear the news by way of Port Townsend and expressed the opinion that it gave cause for congratulation to the friends of the provisional government.

The unexpected arrival of a sailing vessel between Honolulu and San Francisco, the continuation of the northeast trade winds of the Pacific, which occur at this time of the year, with unobscured winds from the south, sailing vessels can steer a straight course for our northwest coast, and sometimes make the voyage in ten days from Honolulu.

CAPT. CUTLER INTERVIEWED. In an interview with Capt. Cutler of the barkentine Kilkistat at Port Townsend he said:

"Minister Willis told me he was surprised to meet so many broad-minded, law-abiding and thoroughly intelligent people in Hawaii. Willis is religiously inclined, and to his credit is associated with the missionary element in the island and came in contact with the ablest men in Honolulu, all of whom are strongly opposed to the restoration of the monarchy, and especially the Queen, on account of her supposed unchaste conduct. This class of citizens were careful to see that Willis was correctly informed on certain facts that Blount did not choose to consider."

"After the steamer Albatross sailed for San Francisco and upon the time the Kilkistat departed for this port a spirit of uneasiness prevailed. Willis was trying to throw the friends of the provisional government out of their guard and permit the royalists to gain possession of the Government buildings. While I was visiting Commander Barker of the United States man-of-war Philadelphia, Nov. 17, an officer came aboard from the Adams and asked if a shore leave was to be permitted. Barker replied no and that the crews should be held in readiness to land at a moment's notice. Willis told me, just before I sailed, that the United States ought to take decisive and immediate action, as the present policy was running but no interest on the island."

NEW DYES FOR COTTON.

BEAUTIFUL AND BRILLIANT COLORS THAT DO NOT FADE.

Scientific Discoveries That Enable Labor-A Weaver's Experience in Dyeing-Carpets Where the Color Stays as Bright as When New.

Those economical women who have learned how easy it is to save money by home-dyeing, have often complained because there were not fast and non-fading dyes for cotton goods.

Within the last few years science has been at work, and the results are the fast diamond dyes for cotton—turkey red, pink, purple, orange, olive green, brown, etc. These dyes make colors so fast that even washing in strong soap-suds will not start them. If a woman is sure to get the fast diamond dyes for cotton when she wants to dye cotton, she will be able to dye absolutely fast, non-fading colors that will stay until the goods are worn out.

A practical dyer, writing in the Weavers' Herald, says: "I used to dye with roots and barks, but after all my work (and it was a tedious job), I was not satisfied, for the colors were homely and often faded. At last I commenced to use diamond dyes, and the process is so simple and easy that the work is a pleasure. I have used carpets made of rags dyed with diamond dyes three years, and the colors are still as bright as when new."

Many of the diamond dye fast cotton colors are so superior to other dyes that they are used by dyers everywhere, even in the big mills and the large dye houses. Initiators of these reliable dyes have claimed that their cotton dyes are "just as good" but practical tests prove the diamond is the only kind that makes colors which soap will not wash out or sunlight fade.

The diamond dyes come in nearly fifty different colors, for silk, wool, and cotton, and will dye anything, from a pair of stockings to a dress or cloak.

has been abused by the present American Administration for obeying President Cleveland's explicit orders. If Minister Stevens is to be blamed for his interpreting last January then much more is Minister Willis to be censured for threatening to punish disturbances of the peace, which Stevens never did."

HERMAN HINKEY MISSING. An East Carolinian Gardner Disappears—Happening in the South End. Herman Hinkey, a German gardener, residing near East Carolinian, is reported missing from home, and his wife thinks he has committed suicide or met with foul play. Hinkey is well acquainted in Carolinian, and last Saturday evening he left his wife and three small children, telling them he was going across the river to attend to some business. He crossed on the ferry with his family, but has not been seen by his friends. The people of East Carolinian say that Hinkey has not committed suicide, nor met with foul play, but that he has probably gone to Collinsville, Ill.

Maurice Jackson, a resident of Luxembourg, was seized by some unknown young hoodlums on River avenue at 11 o'clock last night while driving home from the city. One of the hoodlums hit him on the head, inflicting a painful wound. His injuries were repaired at St. Louis hospital.

Mrs. Mary La Bruere, widow of the late Edward La Bruere, prominent member of the La Bruere family, died at her home, 6120 South Broadway, yesterday. Through an unfortunate mistake in getting the name of the two old French families, it was reported that the late Mrs. La Bruere had died at 6120 South Broadway, which had died instead of Mrs. La Bruere.

Railroad Notes. Herbert Feldman, ticket agent of the Mobile & Ohio, has resigned to embark in business for himself. He will be succeeded by Charles Rudolph of Mobile, Ala., who for two years past has been employed at the general office at Mobile.

John J. Horner has resigned the Presidency of the Arkansas Midland, and H. A. Johnson has been chosen to succeed him. John J. Horner was elected Vice-President and General Manager.

General Superintendent Magee of the Washington & Annapolis Association meets it will have more trouble to contend with, and it is a question as to whether freight rates can be restored at any early date. Following up its reduction of Monday, the Erie has lowered the rate from Chicago to Boston to 24 cents, the New York rate from 27 1/2 cents to 22 1/2 cents and the Philadelphia rate from 24 cents to 20 cents. The reduced rates are effective Dec. 11. As a result of the cut, the Louisville Freight Committee has advised a cut from Louisville to the seaboard. The rates on grain, fertilizers, butter, eggs and poultry will be reduced to the same basis as that announced by the general tariff lines from Chicago. The reduction of the rates gives St. Louis shippers the benefit on business consignments to Virginia and North Carolina seaports.

Oliver Ames has been elected a director of the Union Pacific to fill a vacancy occasioned by the death of F. L. Ames. The election was held at the Springfield Division of the Baltimore & Ohio southwestern. For ten years past Mr. Burleigh has been train dispatcher of the O. & M. at Fama, Ill.

PAT TEBEAU'S PLAN.

Cleveland's Manager-Captain Wants the Players to Organize.

A BENEVOLENT BROTHERHOOD WOULD HAVE A BENEFICIAL INFLUENCE.

Broken Down, Homeless Ball Tossers Should Be Taken Care of in the Years to Come—Local Tuff Chat—The Sedalia Athletic Club Has Disbanded—General Sporting News.

Pat Tebeau, the Cleveland manager and captain, is convinced that the professional base ball players should get together and organize some kind of a benevolent brotherhood that will take care of indigent and broken-down tossers in the years to come. "Under the circumstances it was only a short while before dissatisfaction commenced to crop out in the ranks from the different elements, and then when the traitors commenced to get in their work the end came. The history of the brotherhood demonstrated conclusively, that when it comes down to business, it is a failure."

We didn't know there were so many Beautiful Women pure and simple, the great majority of ball players are like a lot of children. They know how to entertain the public on the diamond, but when it comes to looking out for their own individual interests, how simple they are.

"The average ball player makes a very good salary, but nine out of every ten, almost, are broke at the end of the season. This class exist through the winter on their advance money, and it is not such a rare occurrence, by any means, for a player to start out in the spring with half his salary drawn. Now, I think, if the boys would come together and organize a brotherhood, something on the order of a building association, which would encourage economical habits in the ranks, it would benefit everyone. A scheme of this kind would enable the players to become independent, and eventually make it necessary for the boys to commence drawing pay six or seven months before they start to work. This kind of an organization would soon be in a position to erect a home for indigent and broken down homeless players."

GOSSIP FOR TURFITES.

Mystery of the Madison Race Track—The New Orleans Meeting.

The Madison race track has a mystery and in local turf circles the matter is being commented upon freely. The mystery happens to be an unknown female, always attired in deep mourning and according to the bookies she is the heaviest and most consistent plunger at the track. Monday she sent a $1,000 commission to the foreign book and as the fair lady would say, got it and considered the matter closed. The unknown is credited with being a regular at Hawthorne the past summer and the Closser track regulars were accustomed to referring to her as the mystery. Several bookmakers, who have just come down from Chicago, state that there is no truth in her back story. She plays both the local and Washington races at Madison.

Dick Harvey, who handled Charles Fair's string part of last season, has been engaged to train some youngsters for Theodore Winters. Harvey has a first class reputation as a trainer on the Pacific Coast, and he had very poor luck with the Fair string, which included some magnificent bred performers. Jerry Gough, well known in local turf circles, is now in the employ of Winters and will, no doubt, handle a portion of the string the millionaire Nevada turfman intends campaigning next year.

The regular annual winter meeting of the Crescent City Jockey Club of New Orleans will be inaugurated next Saturday. R. W. Simmons and Clarence McDowell, the regular Board of Control Circuit Judges, will officiate in the stand, and Charles H. Pettengill has been engaged to handle the flag. The meeting promises to be the most successful ever given in the history of running racing in New Orleans. In fact, there seems little doubt but that, next to San Francisco, the Crescent City will have the most aristocratic meeting in progress this winter.

Joe Ullman has decided to locate for the winter in California. He is expected down from Chicago either to-day or to-morrow, and will be in the city by the end of the week. Joe has had exclusive charge of the foreign book at Hawthorne, and his percentage of the profits must have amounted to considerable. Dick Roche, once the star of the St. Louis pool alley, has been interested with Ullman in several outside games in Chicago the past summer. Since he has been in the city, he has been making a good deal of money, and his percentage of the profits must have amounted to considerable. He is not yet broke by any means.

According to a Lexington (Ky.) dispatch there is absolutely no truth in the report sent to the effect that Henry of Navarre has been sold by Byron McClelland to Ed Corrigan for $10,000. Mr. McClelland says the publication was false. A New Orleans dispatch says Aldebaran, the race horse, died there Monday evening in a liver ailment. He arrived with others of the Ireland Bros. string to take part in the winter races. Aldebaran was a 3-year-old chestnut colt by Harry O'Fallon, dam Slipway.

DISBANDED LAST NIGHT.

The Sedalia Athletic Club Has Gone Out of Existence.

SEDALIA, Mo., Dec. 6.—The Sedalia Athletic Club, having a large membership, was disbanded last night after a most prosperous existence of several years. A majority of the amateur athletic events in this city have taken place under the club's auspices.

has been scheduled to take place the early part of next month. President John J. Schaub, who was unanimously re-elected at the recent caucus, will have a walk-over for re-election. The first of the two triangular tournaments, in which Schaeffer, Ives and Sisson are to meet at the back line billiard game, will begin in New York Dec. 11.

VISITED BY FIRE.

Damage Done to the Clothing Establishment of Mills & Averill.

When Archibald E. Mills and Alexander M. Averill, who comprise the firm of Mills & Averill, came down town this morning they found that there had been quite a fire in their clothing establishment last night. The blaze started from a defective flue shortly after midnight in the flooring between the fourth and fifth floors and threatened to spread throughout the whole building. The firemen worked all night, however, and prevented the flames from spreading to any of the three lower floors. The building was damaged to the extent of $5,000, but no amount of damage to the stock by fire was done. The fire was caused by a defective flue, but will amount to a few thousand dollars. Everything is fully covered by insurance. The fourth and fifth floors, where the fire raged, are used as the firm's workshop and tailor shop. Business will not be at all affected by the fire. The exterior of the building this morning does not show any traces of last night's fire, the only indication being a broken pane of glass in the front door, which the firemen shattered to effect an entrance.

THEY FOLLOWED HIM.

Three Men Arrested on Suspicion of Robbing a Mail Wagon.

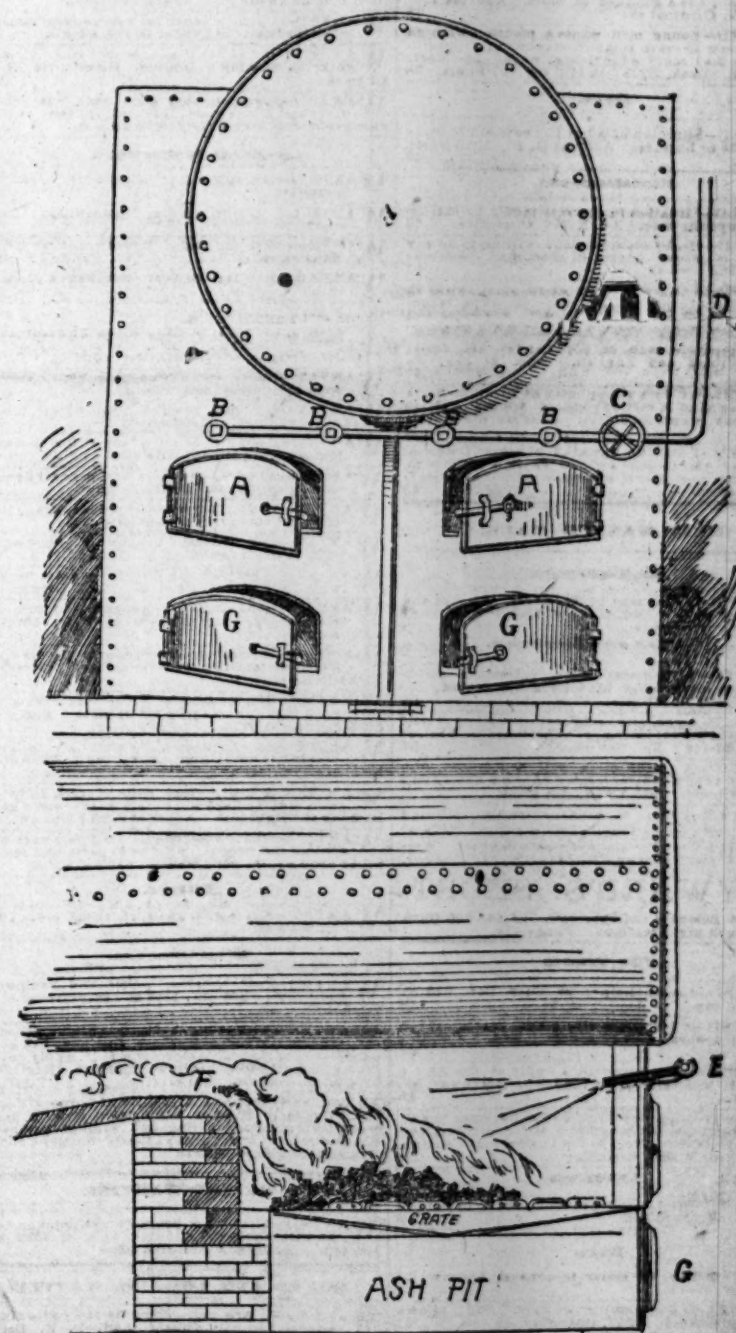

Detectives McGrath and O'Connell last night arrested Herman Harris, Thos. Regan and Dennis McMahon on suspicion of grand larceny. About three nights since a case of shoes valued at $100 was stolen from a mail wagon, which runs out to Sappington, St. Louis Co., Mo. Last night the driver of the wagon saw Regan, McMahon and Harris following him around the corner of the street, and he called on the detectives to arrest them. After their arrest he recognized them as the trio who had aroused his suspicion on the night the case of shoes was stolen from him. He said he had seen them follow him for some time, and he had seen them some hours before he missed the shoes. The stolen property has not been recovered, however, but the officers are confident of recovering the plant before long. The trio under arrest do not bear such elegant reputations, according to the police.

Subscribers who have failed to receive portfolios ordered by mail are requested to be patient a day or two longer and the art works will be forthcoming. Commencing to-day we take personal charge of mailing the portfolios instead of having them mailed from printing office as heretofore, and all unfilled orders will be rushed out by our forces, who will work till midnight to-night to accomplish this result.

How It Is Made and Applied to a Furnace.

A—Fire Doors. B—Supply Pipe to Steam Jets. C—Regulating Valve. D—Supply Pipe from Boiler. E—Steam Jets. F—Bridge Wall. G—Doors to Ash Pit, to be left wide open.

Bore four 1-inch holes through furnace front, just above the fire doors, as shown in cut. Run a 4-inch steam supply pipe across the front with 1/2-inch T's opposite each hole. To each "T" connect a piece of 1/2-inch pipe of sufficient length to reach through, forming the jets. Place a valve in the supply pipe, in front of the boiler, handy for firemen to regulate.

A good way to make the jet is to forge a pipe in the end of the pipe, in the end of which bore a 1/2-inch hole. Inclose the jets at an angle on a line with the center cross line of bridge wall, clearing the fire.

THE MOORISH WAR.
All News of Military Operations Suppressed—Foreign Affairs.

MADRID, Dec. 6.—Telegraphic communication with Meilla is interrupted and all news from the scene of the Moorish troubles come by steamer to Malaga.
Gen. Martinez Campos, who is in command of the Spanish forces at Meilla, has issued an order prohibiting, under penalty of death, the divulging of any news regarding the military operations.
Gen. Martinez Campos has also announced that any soldiers found ill treating Kabyls will be shot.
The Spanish Generals are in favor of establishing a neutral zone between Spanish and Moorish territory.

A ROYAL LOVER SILENT.
MUNICH, Dec. 6.—It is declared by the Neue Presburger that Princess Elisabeth of Bavaria, granddaughter of the regent of Bavaria and of the Emperor of Austria, who was to have been betrothed to Archduke Francis Ferdinand d'Este, when he returned from his recent journey around the world, was married on Nov. 3, at Genoa, to Baron Siefried Hattenheim.
It is reported from Vienna that Baron Bat-tenheim and Princess Elisabeth were married in the presence of their respective families. The pair fell in love at court ball in Munich. The relatives of the Princess were opposed to the match.

M. Dupuy Elected.
PARIS, Dec. 6.—M. Dupuy was elected President of the Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 281 to 215, defeating M. Brisson. This showing of a majority of only forty is not a very encouraging one for the new Cabinet and leads people to believe that it will not remain very stable.

Miss Sanderson as Phryne.
PARIS, Dec. 6.—A rich American amateur has purchased a statue of Miss Sybil Sanderson as Phryne, by Campagne, the sculptor.
The statue will be exhibited at the next salon.

A SWITCHMAN'S PERIL.
Dragged Two Miles in Six Minutes by a Locomotive.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—John H. Morris, the man who on Monday was dragged two miles in six minutes by a locomotive, is doing well at St.
Luke's Hospital, and is in fair way to complete recovery.
Morris was a switchman at Kensington and, according to a passenger train at aid of an inspector, was asked to ride on the train. "Well, that is a pretty good ride," he said upon that subject. "I was thrown out of the train and landed with my head against the side of the engine and held him close against the iron. This blow was enough to knock him out and the only thing to do was to hang on or be ground to pieces by the swift drivers, whose rims came just to his trailing feet.
He yelled at the top of his voice, but the engineer had no eyes or ears for the dangering man. His train rattled on like a tornado, and the tracks were dim in the early light. Time and again Morris' body would get a jolt from a tie or a whack against a lump of sand frozen as hard as a rock.
The pain was enough to cause a loosening of the death grip, but grim determination gave the sufferer almost superhuman power.
He knew that two miles and the engine had stopped, but how he says he never before knew how long two miles were and had never tested the minutes which the books say drag like centuries.

His strong arms grew weak, until about half way down the ride one foot was thrown against a projection from the engine's side.
Then he rested for a second, but only to get himself in a fix a thousandfold worse. A slight curve and he was thrown with renewed violence to the ground. This time his foot was crushed and he could feel the blood oozing from the wound.
The distance was covered in six minutes and less, but to Morris each instant marked at least a day. Two or three times, he says, he closed his eyes and prepared to let go his hold. Then he would strain again his nerves, twist his hands into a new position, get his foot to a place of support and renew the fight with death. Back and forth his body was whacked against the racing engine, each blow cutting or bruising in a new spot. The sharp wind cut him to the marrow and carried away from his head his piercing cry for succor. The snow was whipped up into clouds above him and whistled into the crevices of his torn clothes. It was only two miles of torture and it was enough to make a young man gray.
Finally the engineer saw the imperiled man. The light of the station had brought him into view and with a swift brake brought the train to a stop. The engineer and the fireman quickly came to the rescue as Morris fell in a heap. He was unconscious, but still clinging to the chain. His hands had become frozen tight. He was bleeding in a dozen places and it was thought he was dead.

Henry Peters Missing.
Mrs. Tillie Peters of 1317 North Leffingwell avenue has asked the police to locate and arrest her husband, Henry Peters, who disappeared from St. Louis on Oct. 31, leaving behind the following letter:

DEAR TILLIE—I know this letter will make you feel bad, but it cannot be helped. It is all my fault. I took some money last week and lost it at the races at East St. Louis. I took some more to-day and lost it also, but I will make it up to you. I hope that you will forgive me. HENRY.
The pair were married thirteen months ago in Florida, Ill. Henry took about $1,500 of his wife's money, and she says she heard a few days ago that he was living with another wife in Milwaukee.

DOCTORS WANT THEIR PAY.
Dispensary Physicians Not Yet Remembered for Inspection of Trains.
The assistant dispensary physicians take great interest in the present meetings of the State Board of Health, which are being held at the Southern Hotel. For five months these three gentlemen kept a morning and evening watch every day at the Union Depot on the lookout for all cholera suspects who had landed in New York and passed through St. Louis destined to points in Missouri and other States West and South. Every immigrant was carefully inspected, and a record of each day's inspection turned into the Health Department for the information of the State Board of Health.

Their services were rendered in addition to their regular duties at the City Dispensary, and all of them incurred extra expenses in the way of car-fare and extra meals while waiting for belated trains.
It was expected by Health Commissioner
Homan that the State Board would remunerate them out of the contingent fund provided for this purpose, but so far no action
has been taken in the matter.
They have never made any formal claim or demand for compensation, and as Dr. Homan is still a member of the State Board he will call the attention of the other members to the matter at the present meeting.

Liberty and Loyalty.
DENVER, Colo., Dec. 6.—The secretary of Liberty and Loyalty, an organization to defeat the American Protective Association, has opened headquarters in this city.
It was expected by Health Commissioner
Homan that the State Board would remunerate them out of the contingent fund provided for this purpose, but so far no action
has been taken in the matter.

IT IS FINAL.
The Teachers Committee's Action on Religious Permits.
People who did not relish the revocation of religious permits by the Teachers Committee of the Board of Education at its meeting last week have fondly nursed the thought: "Never mind; wait until the board meets and see how it will treat the action of the committee." The board meets next Tuesday, but the revocation of the permits will hardly be included in the report of the Teachers Committee, and certainly will not come before the board for consideration.

The action of the committee is final, because no departure was taken or new law made. The committee merely reminded the principals that sec. 8 of rule 7 was being observed more in the breach than in the compliance with it. The section reads:
"No pupil shall be allowed to depart from school before the usual time unless for sickness or on account of some other pressing emergency, of which the principal shall be the judge."
The reason given for the enforcement of the rule was the injury done to the general discipline. Pupils were allowed to leave before the usual time of dismissal or were permitted to postpone their hour of arrival in the morning until 10 o'clock or later.

Subscribers who have failed to receive portfolios ordered by mail are requested to be patient a day or two longer and the arrivals will be forthcoming. Commencing to-day we take personal charge of mailing the portfolios instead of having them mailed from printing office as heretofore, and all unfilled orders will be rushed out by our force, who will work till midnight to-night to accomplish this result.
